7:00 PM

Advent Vespers and Advent/Christmas Breakouts

St. Hilary Church, Washington – 320 Henderson Ave., Washington, PA 15301
Host: Anthony Milbower

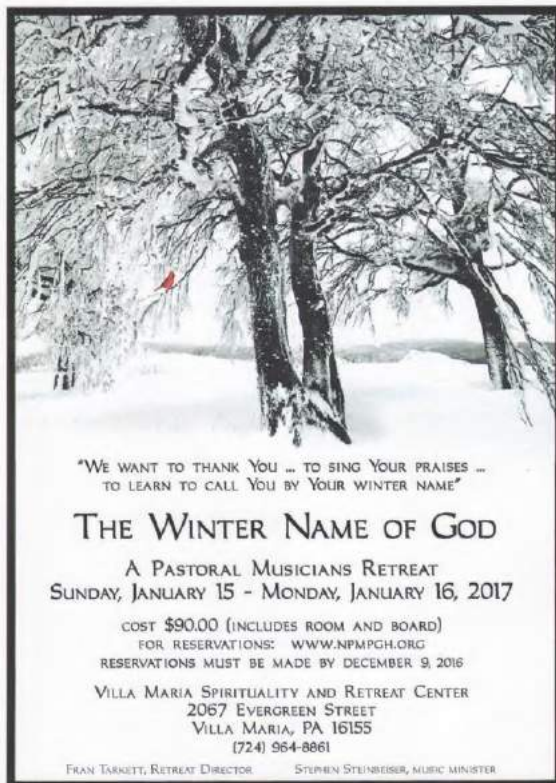

Pastoral Musicians are always so busy between Thanksgiving and Christmas that they rarely take time to feed their own souls.....Take some time for yourself this Advent and join us for Advent Vespers. Following our prayer, we will break into two groups that will run concurrently. One group will participate in a choral reading session of tried and true Advent/Christmas anthems led by Mary Lou Bender and Kevin Maurer. There will be anthems for contemporary and traditional choirs. The other group will participate in a "Ring-Along" led by Mary Rita and Jim Rossetti. Mary Rita and Jim will share their vast knowledge of handbells with you.

After 40 minutes, the groups will switch so that everyone has the opportunity to sing and ring! Following the Breakouts, we will conclude the evening with Koinonia.

Meet our Vicariate 2 - District Liaisons

Vicariate 2, District 1 - Norm Chapman

Norm Chapman is the Director of Music Ministries at St. Maurice Parish in Forest Hills, a position he has joyfully held since August 2011. There he directs the Adult Choir, Contemporary Ensemble, Bell Choirs, Children's Choir and Resurrection Choir. Norm is also the weekday organist for the Sisters of Mercy Convent at Carlow University, and Pianist and Choir Director at Temple David Synagogue in Monroeville. During Norm's 35 year career, he has served as DMM at Word of God Parish in Swissvale, Trinity Lutheran, Avalon, Emanuel's Lutheran, Bellevue and Providence U.P. Church in Brighton Heights. After receiving B.S. degrees in Industrial Management and Managerial Economics from Carnegie Mellon University, Norm held several "real jobs" before abandoning the business world for a life of service to the church - a decision he has never regretted (well, almost never). Norm lives in Forest Hills with his two canine children, Petey and Leo.

Vicariate 2, District 2 - Dianne Falvo

Dianne Falvo got her start in music ministry at age 13, playing for the (6:15 am) daily mass at her home parish, St. Michael, located in the town of St. Michael, 12 miles east of Johnstown. Stipend? $2.00 !!! She pursued her love of music at Duquesne University, graduating with a B.S. in Music Education as an organ major and student of Anne Labounsky. Dianne has been musically involved for many years on many levels in the Diocese and in NPM, serving on the NPM Board in numerous positions. She is presently a member of the Diocesan Schola. Primarily serving in South Hills parishes, Dianne has had the privilege of ministering at St. Germaine and St. Joan of Arc Parishes, as well as St. Regis in South Oakland, and St. Paul of the Cross Monastery and Retreat Center. To this day, she has been the only female Music Director serving the Passionists and the faith community at the Monastery in its 160+ year history! Through the years, Dianne also worked in the musical theater genre with the CLO Gallery of Heroes educational program and at the Center for Theater Arts in Mt. Lebanon. From 2004 to the present, Dianne has served as the Director of Music Ministries at St. Winifred Parish in Mt. Lebanon. In her spare time, she enjoys framing and matting. Dianne and her husband, Greg, are empty nesters and parents of three children, Stephen, Jessica, and Luke, and two perfect grandchildren, Wyatt and Quinn. The Falvos reside in Bethel Park, PA.

Vicariate 2, District 3 - Nicholas Will

Nicholas Will is an Assistant Professor of Music at Franciscan University of Steubenville (Ohio), Director of Music and Liturgy at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Carnegie, Pennsylvania, Assistant Organist at Heinz Memorial Chapel, and Organist/Instructor at St. Paul Seminary. A graduate of Duquesne University and Peabody Conservatory, Nicholas is a prize-winning organist and is active as a recitalist, accompanist, and conductor, having performed at Notre Dame Cathedral, The American Cathedral (Paris), the Westerkerk (Amsterdam), St. Patrick Cathedral, New York, and National City Christian Church, Washington. His debut recording, "Laudato Si: In the Spirit of St. Francis of Assisi," a collaborative effort with soprano Charlene Canty, countertenor Andrey Nemzer, and composer Eli Tamar, was released to critical acclaim in April, 2016. In his spare time he enjoys auto repair and restoration. He and his wife, Kate, and daughters live in Crafton.

Meet our Vicariate 2 - District Liaisons

Vicariate 2, District 4 - Terry Skelley

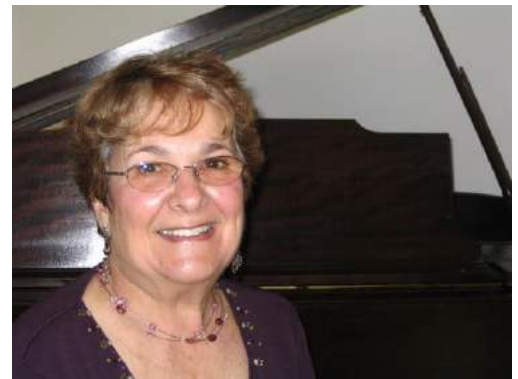

Terry (Theresa) Skelley holds an NPM Performance Certificate, and has attended many NPM- sponsored workshops/clinics. Most of her education is experiential, having held many positions in music throughout the Diocese since 1976. She is currently the Director of Music Ministries at St. Robert Bellarmine Parish, East McKeesport. In addition, she directs the music ministry at Robert Morris University Campus Ministry, and has long-term substitute positions at Mother of Mercy Chapel, Mercy Motherhouse and St. Bonaventure Parish, Glenshaw. She also serves the residents at Marian Manor in Green Tree through her music.

Recently widowed, she has three grown children. Personal musical mission statement: "Blessed the steward who can bring from the storehouse both new and old".

Vicariate 2, District 5 - Carol Accetta

Carol Accetta is currently director of music ministries at St. Thomas a Becket Church in Jefferson Hills, and has worked at many churches in the diocese as a music minister. As a teenager she began her career as organist at her parish church playing for benediction and accompanying the men's choir. As a student at Duquesne University, Carol served on a committee that provided demonstration masses in the diocese to assist parishes with the changes in the liturgy after Vatican II. Carol feels blessed to be married to her husband Carmen for 50 years, raising 7 beautiful daughters, and now has 16 grandchildren.

Vicariate 2, District 6 - Tom Coyne

Thomas Coyne is currently music minister at Saint Maximilian Kolbe Parish in Homestead and Saint Agnes Parish in West Mifflin. Tom is a Lay Ecclesial Minister for Music and Outreach/Evangelization. He is actively directing the parish schola cantorum, parish choir, instrumental ensemble and seasonal choir at Saint Max and provides music for the liturgies at Saint Agnes. In addition, he mentors song leaders and coordinates an outreach music ministry. This ministry brings various musicians to the parish to perform a variety of musical forms. This opportunity allows people to attend concerts at the local parish. Tom is currently working with the Saint Vincent de Paul Society to raise funds to aid the poor and needy in the Steel Valley Area this Christmas Season. He also organizes fundraising events throughout the year to provide the funding for this particular ministry. Tom works at the Hamilton Presbyterian Church as the contemporary service music coordinator on Thursday evenings, leading their worship and worship team. Tom attended Duquesne University where he studied voice, private piano and music therapy. In addition, Tom studied voice at Lincoln Center, NYC, for two semesters. Tom is an active member on the board of the Pittsburgh Irish Festival and coordinates the liturgy at the yearly festival. He created a local passion play, "The Last Days of Christ", which has been in existence since 1995.

Tom enjoys working with the members of the NPM, fellow musicians and plans to be more active in the coming year.

Thank you to our presenters, Fr. Jim Gretz and Fr. Jim Chepponis for our October Workshop on The New Order of Celebrating Matrimony. Thank you also to our host, Thomas Rishel and his music ministry folks at All Saints Church, Etna, and to our members that donated cookies for a scrumptious “Pittsburgh Cookie Table” reception! We also enjoyed listening to organists, Neil Stahurski and Nick Will, as they showcased some wonderful wedding processionals and recessionals.

ALMOND BISCOTTI – a Rossetti family favorite!
(submitted by Mary Rita Rossetti)

- 6 eggs
- 1 cup butter
- 1 ¾ cups sugar
- 2 T. anise seed
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- ¼ tsp. salt
- 2 tsp. vanilla
- 6 c. flour
- 2 cups whole almonds

Cream butter and sugar then add eggs one at a time; add vanilla and anise seed. Add dry ingredients and mix well. Add almonds. Remove from mixer and knead a few turns as you would bread dough. Shape into 6 logs. (I fit 3 on each cookie sheet)
Bake at 350 degrees for 30-40 minutes, until browned on top. Remove from oven and cut diagonally into slices. Put slices on cookie sheet and toast for 5 minutes. Turn cookies over and toast another 5 minutes.

Optional – I usually melt 1 cup of semi-sweet chocolate chips and spread on cooled biscotti.

BISCOTTI DOLCI (submitted by Jennifer Gorske)

- 2 c. sifted flour
- 4 tsp. baking powder
- ¼ tsp. salt (opt.)
- 3 eggs
- 5 T. granulated sugar
- ¼ c. corn oil
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract (or anise)

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Sift together the first 3 ingredients. In a large bowl, lightly beat the sugar, oil, eggs and extract. Stir in flour mixture. With floured hands shape dough into 1-inch balls (if hard to handle add a little more flour). Place 1 ½ inches apart on a greased cookie sheet. Bake 9 minutes or until golden brown. Remove to cooling rack. Makes about 24 cookies. Cool then frost.

Frosting:

- 2 c. confectioners' sugar
- 2 T. milk
- 1 tsp. anise or vanilla extract
- Dab of food coloring or leave white
- Sprinkle for decoration

Stir all in small bowl until smooth. The consistency should be such that will not drip off the cookie. You can adjust the mixture by adding more confectioners' sugar or more milk. If using sprinkles, make sure the frosting has not hardened.

LEMON BARS (submitted by Kevin Maurer)

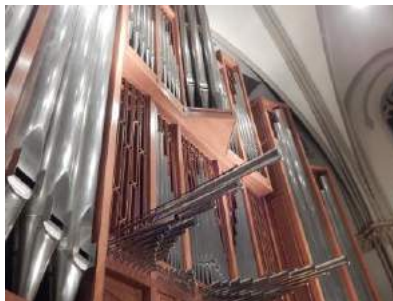

- 2 ¾ c. sifted flour (divided 2 c., ¼ c.)
- ½ c. confectioner's sugar
- 1 c. butter or margarine, softened
- 4 eggs, beaten
- 2 c. sugar
- ½ c. lemon juice
- 2 tsp. grated lemon peel
- ½ tsp. baking powder

Sift together 2 cups flour and confectioner's sugar. Cut in butter until mixture clings together. Press mixture into a 13 X 9-inch glass baking dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes or until lightly browned. Beat together eggs, sugar, lemon juice and lemon peel. Add ¼ c. flour and baking powder and stir. Pour over baked crust. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes longer. Cool. Sprinkle with confectioner's sugar. Cut into bars.

Congratulations

It was well worth the trip up the many steps to the choir loft on Monday, November 7 for the "Night at the Cathedral – The Beckerath Organ," at St. Paul Cathedral in Oakland. A very informative presentation on the history of the organ was followed by organists Don Broderick, Daniel Kovacic, Kenneth Danchik, Jacob Temple, and Donald Fellows, featuring practical preludes and postludes for the parish organist. A complete list of the selections that were presented can be found on our website – <http://www.npmphg.org>. Thank you to Don Fellows and Ken Danchik for hosting this fabulous event!
